INTRODUCTION – 2024/25 BUSINESS PLAN

In the world of regional tourism, change isn't just an option—it's a vital force that drives our growth. As we enter a new era in the tourism sector, one thing is clear: Regional Tourism Organization 7 (RTO7) has the potential to be the leading force in responsible Destination Development. The upcoming changes present us with both challenges and opportunities. We need not just a supportive organization but a strong leader to guide the way in tourism. The next five years are crucial for refining our role, encouraging innovation, and bringing about positive change across the entire region.

Adapting to Changing Landscapes: The tourism landscape is going through significant changes, especially with the introduction of the Municipal Accommodation Tax (MAT) in many tourism-driven areas. This shift has financial and operational implications for our industry and organization. It's prompting us to rethink how we connect and work with the municipalities and Non-Profit Organizations (NFPs) overseeing the MAT. We need to find new ways to collaborate effectively.

Responding to Climate Change: The climate crisis demands our immediate attention. RTO7 has an essential role in promoting sustainability, and its geographic focus allows us to make a significant impact in reducing the environmental effects of tourism. Leading destination development aligns perfectly with our potential to fight climate change.

Championing Responsible Tourism: Responsible tourism is a significant concern as people become more aware of the impact of tourism on local cultures, economies, and ecosystems. Our role is to guide and show how responsible tourism benefits both visitors and the communities they visit. Through education, advocacy, and collaboration, RTO7 will continue to drive positive change beyond our region.

Prioritizing Sustainability: Sustainability remains at the core of our approach, focusing on environmental, economic, and social aspects. As the world seeks practical solutions, RTO7 will lead the way in demonstrating how sustainable practices can be seamlessly integrated into every aspect of the tourism industry, from accommodations to attractions.

Empowering Recovery and Growth: The ongoing effects of the global pandemic still cast a shadow on tourism operators, who need support to recover. RTO7 is ready to provide innovative solutions to enhance industry resilience and establish a strong foundation. The labor shortage is another pressing issue, and RTO7 is committed to addressing it head-on by fostering partnerships and initiatives to rejuvenate the labor market and stimulate growth.

A Call to Evolution: In summary, change is essential, and RTO7 is ready to lead the way. The next five years are not just about adapting but evolving. We are shifting from a supportive role to a proactive one, becoming pioneers with an unwavering purpose. Our Destination Development and Action Plan will guide us towards a future marked by sustainability, responsibility, and prosperity. With dedication and collaboration, we will overcome challenges and shape a more resilient and vibrant tourism industry across our region.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

SUCCESS STORIES

Introduction:

Within the landscape of tourism, RTO7 has not only weathered challenges but emerged as a beacon of innovation and resilience. Through proactive responses to industry needs, implementation of innovative solutions, dedicated research initiatives, and a strategic approach to workforce development, RTO7 has positioned itself as a driving force in shaping the future of tourism in BruceGreySimcoe. This success story unfolds through a series of strategic initiatives and collaborative efforts that showcase RTO7's commitment to not just overcoming obstacles but transforming them into opportunities.

Proactive Response to Industry Needs:

COVID - RTO7 swiftly responded to industry needs through the Operations Implementation Program (OIP), promptly addressing businesses' urgent requirements for targeting marketing efforts that can be 'turned on and off quickly' with no cost to the operator. The initiation of the Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) program, conceived by RTO7, resulted in the approval and issuance of essential funding within just 10 days to support tourism operators after endorsement by the Province. RTO7 successfully secured over $11 million in non-Ministry of Tourism, Culture, and Sport (MTCS) funding for tourism in BruceGreySimcoe (BGS) in December 2020. Alongside three other RTOs, RTO7 exceeded expectations of a federal funding agency, prompting the agency to offer a $68 million program in 2022/23 to the 11 Southern Ontario RTOs. This substantial funding is directly allocated to support tourism operators in areas such as capital improvements, expansion, 'pivot' strategies, research and marketing, workforce development, and inclusivity training.

Collaborative efforts with other RTOs, led by RTO13, in securing funds and executing programming have proven beneficial for workforce development, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusivity initiatives, laying the groundwork for Sustainable Tourism. This collaboration in efforts has benefited the efforts in workforce development, and inclusivity training.

In a recent achievement in mid-January, RTO7 secured $2 million from another funder to facilitate the installation of EV Chargers in BruceGreySimcoe, further contributing to the region's progress.

Innovative Solutions:

In 2020, RTO7 showcased innovation through the "Close to Home" Local Musician Campaign, directing attention to the vibrant local music scene. Recognizing the challenges faced by artists due to COVID, RTO7 collaborated with a local promoter to record 20 musicians performing their original pieces. The resulting social media campaign, part of the "Close to Home" initiative, highlighted these artists and brought attention to the region's musical talent.

The success of the "Close to Home" mantra extended beyond music, influencing local campaigns that encouraged community members to support local businesses and minimize travel to other parts of the province. RTO7's forward-thinking approach in visual content development, initiated 11 years ago through the first Partnership Program, continues to drive investments in these efforts, setting a precedent for other organizations, including Destination Ontario, to follow suit.

The regional signage program, another successful Partnership Program, has set a benchmark by installing approximately $2 million in tourism signage throughout the region. Shared with other RTOs, this program remains adaptive to the evolving needs of the traveling public, complementing the Ontario TODS program, and fostering effective private-public partnerships.

Since 2016, RTO7 has been actively steering the region towards a more sustainable tourism model. Despite interruptions caused by COVID, the necessity for a comprehensive strategy became increasingly evident during the pandemic. The current 5-year strategy and business plan reflect a balanced approach, positioning BruceGreySimcoe as a leader in the adoption of sustainable tourism practices in Ontario.

Research

RTO7 has emerged as the primary resource for tourism research and guidance. While two additional counties collaborate with RTO7 to obtain Research Platforms and data, RTO7 has distinguished itself as the expert in delivering comprehensive reports to operators and municipalities across the region. The information provided to operators is proving instrumental in shaping product development and marketing strategies, while municipalities are leveraging the outputs for economic development planning, MAT research, tourism planning, and capital projects.

The utilization of this research has underscored the indispensable role of RTO7 in municipal planning. The organization is consistently included in the list of entities to consult when planning projects related to tourism, workforce, economic development and various other initiatives.

Workforce

In the tourism industry, workforce challenges persist as a critical issue often labeled as a crisis. These complex issues demand collaborative and creative solutions to ease the burden on tourism operators.

RTO7 has implemented several initiatives to tackle these challenges:

1. Training Programs: RTO7 provides Typsy training programs, covering Customer Service and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion training. These programs aim to enhance knowledge and skills among operators and employees, proving to be well-received and consistently popular. These short lessons lead to certificates endorsed by the International Institute of Hospitality.
2. T3 Accelerator Program: This program offers personalized coaching to businesses, connecting them with industry experts to navigate challenges. Additionally, it assesses technology use in tourism businesses, identifying opportunities for operational optimization.
3. Skills Development Fund Application: RTO7 collaborated with Destination Northern Ontario and RTO9 to support the Tourism SkillsNet Program. This initiative matches job seekers with employers, provides training to new hires, and offers wage subsidies. It also supports the Careers in Tourism series, aiming to change perceptions of careers in tourism.
4. High School Hospitality Challenge: The Simcoe High School Hospitality Challenge Expanded to include Bruce and Grey Counties, this program engaged 220 students from 9 schools and 8 tourism operators. It highlights the skills needed for success in the tourism industry and fosters connections with local businesses.
5. Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion training: Provided by the Canadian Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce, is available in both online and instructor-led formats.

Conclusion:

Navigating the complex landscape of the tourism industry, RTO7 has showcased adaptability and collaborative efforts. From addressing urgent needs during the COVID crisis to introducing the "Close to Home" campaign, RTO7 has played a pivotal role in propelling the region forward. Serving as a central hub for tourism research and contributing to workforce development, RTO7 has become a valuable resource for operators and municipalities. The outlined strategic vision positions BruceGreySimcoe as a leader in sustainable tourism practices, emphasizing a future where challenges are met with practical solutions. ## BRUCEGREYSIMCOE TOURISM TODAY

In BruceGreySimcoe, community members clearly recognize how important tourism is for the area's future. They understand that tourism helps businesses grow, create jobs, and attract more people. However, some folks worry that too many visitors might harm the environment and local communities. This could mean more trash, crowded places, and less access to local spots. People are also concerned that tourism might affect housing affordability and the traditional way of life. At the same time, tourism operators are recovering from the COVID Pandemic and the effects of shepherding their businesses through the obstacles, debt load, and changing consumer trends is overwhelming, and many are rightly concerned about their viability.

Outside Influences on Tourism in BruceGreySimcoe

People know that planning for tourism doesn't happen alone. The decisions of the 37 municipal governments and 4 Indigenous Bands in BruceGreySimcoe about things like roads and communication impact tourism too. Looking at the bigger picture, issues like racism, diversity, and fairness are important. The community is changing, and it's important to welcome everyone, including new residents and visitors. To do this, groups can work together and use committees, like the ones we already have, to build strong relationships with all types of communities.

When looking at how politics affect tourism, some people worry about what locals think of tourism. Some residents might not like it because of their personal experiences. To address this, it's important to help everyone understand the benefits of tourism through research and sharing information.

Technology is crucial to use new tools to learn what visitors like. This helps to make their experience better and attract the right kind of tourists. Working with partners and using data to make decisions can help everyone involved.

Economic matters are also important. Investing in things like roads and communication helps people move around easily. A tax on accommodations could help with this and support efforts to protect the environment from things like climate change and address social and health issues within the community.

Another big issue is following the rules. Regulations are needed for short-term rentals so they're fair. A tax on these rentals could also bring in money to support tourism and the community.

Lastly, the environment is a major concern. Climate change affects everyone, and water bodies like beaches are really important. It's necessary to work together to understand how human activities impact the environment and find ways to restore it for the future.

According to their research, 62% of travelers try to avoid crowded places, 46% think about their own impact, 37% prefer places that are responsible, and 34% are willing to pay extra for sustainability. Our objective is to examine our current practices, identify potential areas for improvement, and plan specific actions that contribute to a forward-thinking and resilient society.

Sustainable Collaboration: Transparency and collaboration form the bedrock of our operations. We firmly believe in openly communicating our strategies and actions. At RTO7, we are in the process of formulating a clear promise outlining how we intend to manage tourism and destinations. This promise underscores our dedication to strategic management, ensuring that all stakeholders, from local businesses to government bodies, comprehend our plans and work cohesively towards a unified goal in tourism development.

Empowering the Industry: An essential aspect of our strategy involves emphasizing the significance of each individual within the tourism industry. We advocate for a deep understanding of how every role interconnects, illuminating the complexity of our industry's network. We provide various learning opportunities, enabling industry professionals to comprehend their roles better, make informed decisions, and collaborate effectively, ultimately enhancing the industry's overall effectiveness.

Crafting Exceptional Visitor Experiences: We are unwavering in our commitment to enhancing the visitor experience in our region. To achieve this, we facilitate special tours for our staff who directly interact with visitors. These tours provide them with invaluable firsthand experiences of the place's visitors frequent, such as attractions, hotels, local businesses, and cultural sites. Armed with this insider knowledge, our staff can offer superior service to visitors, ensuring their experiences are nothing short of memorable.

Strategic Partnership Selection for Maximum Impact: We place immense emphasis on forging partnerships that create a meaningful difference. Our team meticulously evaluates potential partners based on stringent criteria, prioritizing their positive impact on the environment, the economy, and our community over purely financial gains. We carefully consider how these partnerships align with our goals, taking into account the environment, local culture, and the overall benefit to our region. This deliberate approach ensures that the projects we endorse have a lasting positive effect, contributing to the appeal, resilience, and sustainability of our region.

CONTINUING OUR EVOLUTION: SUSTAINABLE PARTNERSHIPS AND COLLABORATION

At RTO7, our commitment to progress is deeply rooted in the fusion of economic success with environmental and social sustainability. We are dedicated to building upon our existing strengths and promoting teamwork through effective collaboration processes and a clear promise for developing tourism destinations. Our approach is centered around enhancing industry awareness, empowering frontline staff, and meticulously evaluating the impacts of our partnerships. We believe in nurturing enduring relationships by providing resources, fostering strong communication, and promoting collaboration. As RTO7's journey continues, our commitment remains steadfast in creating a balanced and flourishing tourism destination.

CONTINUING OUR EVOLUTION: MAXIMIZING MUNICIPAL ACCOMMODATION TAX (MAT) IMPACT THROUGH COLLABORATIVE TOURISM MANAGEMENT

At RTO7, we emphasize the power of collaboration with local entities to enhance our tourism landscape. Our primary objective is clear: to cultivate a thriving tourism destination. To achieve this, we strategically share our extensive tourism knowledge with municipalities, non-profit organizations (NFPs) tasked with managing the Municipal Accommodation Tax (MAT), and other tourism organizations. By optimizing service delivery models within these entities and promoting tourism-related services, we aim to establish a sustainable ecosystem that benefits tourism operators, visitors, and local communities. Our strategy centers around collaboration, capacity building, and sustainable growth, steering us towards a harmonious future for our destination.

CONTINUING OUR EVOLUTION - DEDICATED TO RESEARCH AND LEARNING

In alignment with the RTO7's commitment to perpetual learning and innovation within the tourism industry, this operational plan outlines a detailed 5-year trajectory focusing on continuous research, insightful assessment tools, enhanced visitor understanding, and empowered workforce for sustainable tourism practices. This plan aims to harmonize economic triumph with responsible practices, enriching the tourism ecosystem in RTO7.

This tool will serve as a benchmark for responsible experiences, underlining our commitment to ensuring that tourism initiatives align with ethical and sustainable practices. Additionally, our strategy encompasses professional development programs tailored for businesses, guided tours, and the establishment of a collaborative self-assessment system.

Collectively, we strive toward a future characterized by responsible and impactful tourism, all the while safeguarding our natural assets. Through these initiatives, RTO7 aims to play a pivotal role in shaping a tourism landscape that not only captivates visitors with its creativity but also upholds a commitment to sustainability, thus preserving the essence of our region for generations to come.

OVERVIEW AND FUTURE DIRECTION – WORKFORCE/LABOUR FORCE DEVELOPMENT

RTO7 remains steadfast in its commitment to advancing sustainable growth within the tourism sector, specifically addressing the pressing challenge of workforce shortages. Our dedication stems from the belief that fostering a resilient and prosperous future is essential not only for the tourism industry but also for the well-being of the regions it serves.

At the heart of this commitment is our Business Plan 2024/25 for Workforce/Labour Force Development. This plan is strategically linked to our broader Tourism Destination Development and Action Plan, forming a cohesive approach aimed at fortifying the foundations of the industry. By doing so, we aspire to not only address immediate challenges but also to establish a framework that will enhance visitor experiences and provide sustained support to local communities.

This integration of workforce development initiatives into our overarching tourism strategy underscores our holistic vision for sustainable tourism. Through these interconnected plans, RTO7 aims to contribute to the creation of a tourism landscape that not only thrives economically but also fosters social and environmental resilience. ## OVERVIEW AND FUTURE DIRECTION – INVESTMENT ATTRACTION/INVESTOR RELATIONS

The outlined strategy for Investment Attraction strongly emphasizes sustainable tourism practices. By partnering with municipalities to refine data collection and analysis for tourism product development, this plan aims to foster growth within the tourism sector while maintaining a strong emphasis on sustainability.

Securing access to Environics Analytics Data/Platforms and or other related data will enable more comprehensive and sustainable data analysis for making informed decisions. The objective is not only to produce reports for stakeholders but also to influence tourism development strategies with an environmentally conscious approach.

The communication program, designed to engage Economic Development Officers, will stress the importance of sustainability in partnership programs. It will highlight how these initiatives align with sustainable tourism practices and encourage the involvement of EDOs in such programs that contribute to the sustainable growth of the tourism sector.

Therefore, the approach is not just about attracting investments, but it also underscores the significance of sustainability in the economic development strategy. This not only makes the tourism sector more resilient but also aligns with sustainable development goals for the betterment of the environment and the communities involved.

KEY RISKS AND MITIGATION STRATEGIES:

1. Financial Risks:

- a. Risk: Insufficient or delayed funding may jeopardize the ability to deliver the programs on time, and when needed.
- b. Mitigation: Actively seek additional funding through collaborations, partnerships, and grants. Implement a cost-effective model and explore revenue-generating avenues for sustainability. Develop programming that is scalable.

2. Competitive Risks:

- a. Risk: Similar initiatives in Ontario and internationally may create competition for consumers, partnerships, and the attention of potential partners.
- b. Mitigation: Leverage collaborations with existing initiatives, emphasizing unique value propositions and the program's specific focus on the rural tourism sector, products and experiences. Actively participate in knowledge-sharing networks to complement and learn from similar initiatives.

3. Technical Risks:

- a. Risk: Technical challenges may arise during the implementation of recommended changes for businesses, potentially leading to disruptions or delays.
- b. Mitigation: Provide ongoing support and training to businesses, ensuring an acceptable level of compliance with the needs of RTO7 to complete the requirements of the Business Plan. Where necessary collaborate with technology experts to address any unforeseen issues, leveraging the T3 program.

4. Regulatory Risks:

- a. Risk: Changes in regulatory frameworks may impact the program's ability to operate or influence the implementation of programming.
- b. Mitigation: Stay informed about relevant regulations and adapt the program's recommendations accordingly. Collaborate with regulatory bodies to ensure alignment and compliance. Advocate for policies that support recognition and needs in the tourism sector.

5. Supply Chain Risks:

- a. Risk: Dependencies on external vendors or partners for technology solutions may introduce supply chain vulnerabilities.
- b. Mitigation: Diversify partnerships to reduce dependence on a single vendor. Establish clear communication channels with partners to address supply chain challenges promptly. Encourage businesses to adopt technologies with flexible and scalable solutions.

6. Market Acceptance Risks:

- a. Risk: Tourism businesses may be resistant to change or slow in adopting recommended programming advancements.
- b. Mitigation: Conduct extensive outreach and education programs to communicate the benefits of the program. Tailor support and training to address the specific needs and readiness levels of businesses and associations. Gather feedback and iterate the program based on market responses.

7. Long-term Sustainability Risks:

- a. Risk: Developing a self-sustaining model beyond the funding period may face challenges, impacting the continuity of support for businesses.
- b. Mitigation: Explore various revenue-generating models, such as advanced training sessions or consulting services. Foster long-term partnerships with organizations interested in the sustained impact of the program. Continuously assess and adapt the Organizations sustainability plan based on evolving circumstances.

By proactively identifying and addressing these key risks, the Business Plan aims to ensure the smooth implementation of its objectives, mitigate potential challenges, and create resilient and sustainable initiatives that deliver meaningful benefits to the Tourism Industry in Region 7.

Over the years, RTO7 has consistently upheld a standard of excellence in governance and administration, proactively implementing changes to enhance and streamline its organizational processes. The current 2023/24 Business Plan specifically called for an update to the Strategic Plan, a task that RTO7 effectively accomplished internally. This updated plan serves as a detailed roadmap guiding RTO7's progression and the region's development into a Sustainable Tourism Destination.

This strategic evolution is set to be integrated into RTO7's operations, ensuring that stakeholders not only receive ongoing support but also guidance as they transition toward a more sustainable tourism model. The forthcoming Governance and Administration section will encapsulate RTO7's transformation into the foremost authority in driving Sustainable Tourism Destination Development for the BruceGreySimcoe region (Region 7). This pledge reaffirms RTO7's commitment to leading the charge in sustainable tourism development and setting new industry standards.

Sustainable Collaboration: Transparency and collaboration form the bedrock of our operations. We firmly believe in openly communicating our strategies and actions. At RTO7, we are in the process of formulating a clear promise outlining how we intend to manage tourism and destinations. This promise underscores our dedication to strategic management, ensuring that all stakeholders, from local businesses to government bodies, comprehend our plans and work cohesively towards a unified goal in tourism development.

Empowering the Industry: An essential aspect of our strategy involves emphasizing the significance of each individual within the tourism industry. We advocate for a deep understanding of how every role interconnects, illuminating the complexity of our industry's network. We provide various learning opportunities, enabling industry professionals to comprehend their roles better, make informed decisions, and collaborate effectively, ultimately enhancing the industry's overall effectiveness.

Crafting Exceptional Visitor Experiences: We are unwavering in our commitment to enhancing the visitor experience in our region. To achieve this, we facilitate special tours for our staff who directly interact with visitors. These tours provide them with invaluable firsthand experiences of the place's visitors frequent, such as attractions, hotels, local businesses, and cultural sites. Armed with this insider knowledge, our staff can offer superior service to visitors, ensuring their experiences are nothing short of memorable.
